ALFORD OPENS COUNTY CLERK OFFICE FRIDAY

Becomes Second Democrat
to Fill Co. Office; Hendee
Seeks Recount

Russ Alford, following the mandate of the appellate court that Lew A. Hendee issue a certificate of election to him, can take over Hendee's office as county clerk tomorrow (Friday) will be the second county officer tagged as a Democrat in Lake County's history.

The previous Democrat who took up the duties of an elective county officer was Albert F. Conrad of Waukegan, Democratic candidate for sheriff at the 1890 election which he won by a 2,695 majority over Dighton Granger, the Republican. Alford's majority, according to evidence reviewed and upheld by the Supreme Court last week, is 147 and as soon as he has filed bond received his commission from Gov. Henry Horner and taken the oath of office as county clerk, Hendee expects to present his petition before County Judge Perry L. Parsons for a recount of the ballots cast for county clerk at the November 6, 1934, election.

Hendee Reports Today.

Under provision of the court's mandate, Hendee must report before Circuit Judge Ralph J. Dady on or before the afternoon adjournment of the court today that he has carried out the order to "without further excuse or delay, certify the election of Russ Alford."

A review of the records to find the only other Democrat to hold a Lake county office reveals that when Conrad took office in 1890, the late Albert L. Hendee, father of the present County Clerk Hendee, had just finished a four-year term as Lake county treasurer and was then named chief deputy county clerk by Louis E. Dorsett, who was elected county clerk on the Republican ticket at that time.

First Elected in 1910.

Dorsett died during this term and Lew Hendee's father was appointed to fill the unexpired term to 1894 and was reelected for four succeeding terms. Lew Hendee became deputy county clerk under his father during the 1902-06 term and in 1910 was a candidate and was elected to the office of county clerk which he has held successively until the present date.

Alford, whose integrity has never been questioned, came into political prominence in comparatively recent years, having been appointed as Waukegan Township tax assessor by the town board to fill the unexpired term of Charles Arnes, who died in office. He was then elected to the assessor's office in 1933 for a four-year term.

Close Assessor's Office.

Before taking over the duties of county clerk on the mandate order, Alford will close his assessor's office and turn in a formal letter of resignation as Waukegan Township assessor to Town Clerk John Hogan. His first duties in the county clerk's office will be action on the tax books as the board of review has completed its work of equalizing the property assessed values of 1935 and the county clerk's office must now extend the taxes.

Rotnour Players Return to Crystal

Popular Troupe to Appear
Each Friday at Local Playhouse

J. B. Rotnour and his popular players have completed arrangements to appear at the Crystal Theatre each Friday night during the coming season in high class productions of spoken drama. The company has just closed the annual northern tour and immediately made arrangements with Manager Fred Swanson of the Crystal and with Antioch merchants to co-operate in sponsoring the series of plays here.

About twenty local business firms, listed in the Crystal Announcement in this edition, are giving free tickets to the plays.

The performance will start at 8:15 p.m. Nov. 8, when "The Melting Pot," one of the latest comedy dramas of domestic true life, will be shown.

This season Manager Rotnour assures a larger company than ever and is staging only the latest, royalty plays released to stock companies. The performances will start at $1.50 and free tickets will be ready for distribution by local merchants tomorrow (Friday).

International Honors for Deyenroth's Plan Touches Antioch News

When Carl F. Deyenroth, executive secretary of the Milk Foundation of Chicago, was recognized Sunday with the highest award of the International Association of Milk Dealers for furthering cooperative efforts to promote high nutritional standards, The Antioch News rejoiced at the recognition having prepared for Mr. Deyenroth more than 2,000 printed pages for his advertising campaign.

The award came in recognition of the advertising campaigns created and produced by Mr. Deyenroth, including the "Drink Milk to Prolong Youth and Beauty" series, the "Hidden Hunger" appeal and the present "Look to the Future—Start Drinking Milk Today" program.

The Antioch News supplied a total of 419,950 free to eight page bulletins for the milk secretary and Mr. Deyenroth's achievement was emphasized all the more by the fact that leaders in New York, Philadelphia, St. Louis and many other cities and in foreign countries, including Scotland and England, were considered for the honor.

CHICAGOAN SHOT WHILE HUNTING

Cab Driver Is First Major Casualty in Duck Shooting

The hunting season chalked up its first serious accident last week when Frank Tedesco, 42, of 15 S. Halsted St., Chicago, was shot through the left leg with the wads and slugs tearing into the right foot while hunting ducks on Grass Lake. Tedesco, a taxi-cab driver, and his companion, Frank Styrno of 1028 Richmond Avenue, Chicago, were preparing to row their boat ashore Thursday afternoon after a day of duck hunting about a quarter of a mile from Ray Prezenger's resort.

Styrno was emptying his 12-gauge pump shotgun when it accidentally discharged, the slug tearing through Tedesco's left leg and penetrating his right foot. The wounded man was taken to the office of Dr. D. N. Deering in Antioch where first aid treatment was administered. Tedesco was then rushed to the Victory Memorial Hospital for surgical attention.

Chicago Man Buys Judge Decker Farm

Roy Engels of Chicago has purchased the Judge Martin C. Decker farm of 150 acres located four miles east of Antioch. The purchaser also acquired the personal property and farm equipment from the tenant, Elmer Johnson, at the auction sale held last Saturday.

Mr. Engels will raise beef cattle and poultry, for which the well improved land is especially adapted. The farm was formerly known as the Ben Atkin farm. Judge Decker bought it about ten years ago.

October Good Fishing Month, Anglers Say

Mild weather has made October an exceptionally good fishing month in the chain of lakes, according to anglers who fly rod and reel at every opportunity. During the past week bag limits of bass have been the rule at Lake Marie.

E. Dempsey of Chicago, pulled in with seven black bass and three small mouth bass last Saturday, and had an eight-pound pickerel for good measure. Ten bass is the daily limit. The following day James McKenzie, another Chicago fisherman, also got the limit of black bass.

Grayslake Woman to Address Channel Lake Parents, Teachers

The Channel Lake Parent Teachers Association will have their regular meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 6, 1935, at 3 P.M. in the school auditorium. Mrs. A. F. Seisser of Grayslake will be the guest speaker at this meeting. Mrs. Seisser was program chairman for the Grayslake Parent Teachers last year. She will give a book review of one of Boss Streeter's Aldrich books.

COSTUMED PARADE STARTS HALLOWEEN JAMBOREE TONIGHT

Eighteen Businessmen Co- operate to Give School Kid Annual Party

Through the cooperation of 18 Antioch businessmen who provided suitable prizes for the costume contest and parade tonight, more than 150 grade school children from Antioch and the surrounding neighborhood are getting ready for the Second Annual Halloween Jamboree originally planned by The Antioch News and the Antioch

The cooperating businessmen who are providing prizes for the school children are: Carl H. Kusman, Frank D. Powles, William A. Rosing, Berne Fields, H. A. Smith, Irving B. Elms, C. K. Anderson, W. T. Williams, Frank R. King, Alvin Krouman, Otto S. Klaas, L. O. Bright, Ralph E. Clabaugh, J. Ernest Brook, S. H. Reeves, and Raymond Webb.

Hold Costume Parade.

The parade, which is in charge of Principal Clabaugh and the grade school teachers, starts from the Grade school at 7 o'clock tonight and proceeds through the business district including the Antioch Theatre. Only those in full costume are admitted free to the show and while it does not matter what kind of costume, merely a mask or a painted face will not be included in the group.

Inside the theatre, prizes will be awarded for the best costumes in the group, the most artistic, the most original, the most comical, etc., and Fred B. Swanson, proprietor of the Antioch Theatre, has arranged for a special showing of the Laurel and Hardy full-length latest comedy, "Bonnie Scotland," along with an "Our Gang" comedy and a traveltalk in natural colors.

Why Halloween?

Behind the jamboree efforts the local businessmen see a means of eliminating mischievous pranks which many times lead to "hoodlumism" or expense bills the next day for a parent to pay.

Halloween celebrations were originally observed as the night before All Saints day when the Christian church was supposed to pay honor to martyrs and other historic personages which is a far cry from the modern version which the kid element celebrates by toppling over ash barrels, running off with gates, and more destructive forms of pastime.

NOTED PASTOR TO ADDRESS WOMAN'S CLUB NEXT MONDAY

The Rev. John B. Hubbard to Be Speaker on Guest Day

The Rev. John B. Hubbard, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church of Park Ridge since 1931, and adviser in young people's work for the churches in five states, will be the speaker before the Antioch Woman's club and guests next Monday afternoon at two o'clock at St. Peter's Parish Hall, Antioch. His subject will be: "You and Youth." The pastor has just completed a series of 20 lectures on Religious Education at the Nashotah (Wis.) Theological Seminary. He spoke before the Tribune conference last February and before the state federated clubs in May.

The occasion has been designated as guest day and luncheon will be served to club members and their guests at one o'clock.

Mrs. Melvin Stillson will talk on current events and there will be special musical numbers. The meeting will be in charge of the board of managers as hostesses.

Members of the following neighboring clubs have received invitations: Fox Lake, Grayslake, Lake Villa and Long Lake.

Channel Lake Boy Drops Boxing Bout in CYO Tournament

After winning the preliminary bout in the north shore section of the annual Catholic Youth Organization boxing tournament, Bob Smith of Channel Lake, representing St. Peter's parish, Antioch, lost a close decision last night in the Loyola University gym, Chicago. The winner is Al Zuchta, the St. Stephen's parish representative in Chicago. The boys, fighting in the 135-pound class, were evenly matched in their 3-round bout.

ANTIOCH JUNIORS STAGE CLASS PLAY

"Reach for the Moon" to be Produced at High School Next Week

It's never been completely determined whether Kate Smith gets the moon over the mountain; but the theatrically inclined members of the junior class of the Antioch Township high school will stage their superproduction next week Thursday and Friday and "Reach for the Moon."

This three-act comedy will be presented with two casts in the high school auditorium and takes for its setting a dude ranch out there in Colorado with all the sound effects, cowboys, excitement, and action galore! A preview of the plot finds Jennifer Lee, who is scheduled to marry the Earl of Sherbourne, skipping out from the matrimonial handcuff at the last minute and becoming a secretary at the dude ranch where she meets Larry, the handsome Irishman who ever kissed the Blarney Stone.

The cast of characters are: Sally, a young modern (Lillian Overton, Cleo Jackson); Larry (Donald Minto); Betty, Sally's best friend (Dorothy Moyer, Leone Buchta); Patricia Pennington, a shy young thing (Clara Sherwood, Willa Bacon); Hal, Sally's brother (Willie Grinn, Albert Drocob); Anthony (Harold Groebel, Otto Hanke); John Cameron, Larry's partner (Bob Christensen, James Herman); Keevaydin, Indian serving man (Robert Grinn); Jennifer Lee, a mysterious young woman (Vallere Wilton, Jayne Allnor); Genevieve Lee, a stranger (Virginia Norman); Mrs. Lammore, a "grande dame" (Jean Hughes, Doris Fitzgerald); Ted, a modern cowboy (Peter Zelen); The Earl of Sherbourne (Clarence Rosenstock); Pamela Parnell, an English girl (Bertha Peterson, Andrea Dalgard).

ANTIOCH SCHOOL FILES WPA PLAN FOR AUDITORIUM

Grade School Board Sees Opportunity to Complete Original Building

In an effort to take advantage of the Federal government's invitation to share in the Works Progress administration fund, the board of education of the Antioch Grade school filed application Tuesday for the completion of the Grade school building calling for an auditorium which can be converted into a gymnasium.

Deadline for such government projects is set for tomorrow (Friday), according to statements from the 13th district office of the WPA in Waukegan.

At the recent meeting of the board of education it was recalled that due to insufficient funds from the bond issue at the time of its construction in 1928, the board was forced to postpone the auditorium construction indefinitely. However, board members believe the present economic conditions and the government's WPA invitation have given an opportunity that may never come again by the Federal donation of more than 50 percent of the cost in finishing the present building.

To Cost $20,500

Investigation by the board discloses that the total cost for labor and material will amount to about $20,500 and estimates by engineers in the WPA office reveal that the project can probably be consummated for an outlay of about $6,000 by the school board.

Discussions by the board indicates that the school's share in the project may be raised by tax anticipation warrants payable after the present bond issue is called in 1943. In this way there will be no additional burden on taxpayers or no raised tax assessments to meet the school's construction bills, the board's report shows, and already several Antioch businessmen have indicated their willingness to support the project by purchasing the warrants when issued.

Additional Facilities Needed.

It was explained that the auditorium and gymnasium is necessary for physical training classes and the Grade school pupils are now dependent on the high school gymnasium facilities which are available to the younger students in the evenings only.

According to the plan, the addition will extend as the east wing of the present structure, using the present library as the ridge. This was part of the original 1928 plans.

As the auditorium will cover a floor space of 50 feet by 66 feet and can easily be converted into a gymnasium with a 40 foot by 60 foot floor, dressing rooms are planned with full shower and locker facilities on either side of the structure for boys and girls. A kitchenette is planned for the space beneath the present library.

Provide Work for 30.

That the project carries out the WPA's underlying motive to eliminate the dole for the payroll is re- vealed in the fact that about 30 full-time skilled and unskilled laborers will be necessary in the construction work which will require from 4 to 6 months for completion. The government pays for all the labor and part of the materials.

When completed the building will house not only adequate space for basketball, indoor baseball, volleyball, etc., with ample seating accommodations for spectators, but likewise necessary facilities for school assembly educational programs, plays, dramatic courses, parent-teachers' meetings, etc.

Legion to Sponsor Amateur Floor Show

Commander Frank Hattrem, of the Antioch Legion Post, announces that an additional feature of the Legion Dinner-Dance at the Pasadena Garden, November 9, will be an amateur contest which is open to any resident of Antioch community, either sex and regardless of age. A $5.00 prize will be donated to the act receiving the most applause. Additional prizes will be donated. Contestants must be bona fide amateurs and legal residents of this community so that the contest will be fair to all.

Tryouts will be held at the Legion Hall in Antioch Saturday night November 2, at 8 o'clock and the best acts will appear at the Pasadena Garden the following Saturday. In every community there is sufficient talent that is waiting for an opportunity to appear before the public, the commander explains, and this is an opportunity for everyone who has theatrical aspirations.

WE CAN'T BE NEUTRAL IN THIS WAR
There is one war in which our country cannot remain neutral—war against fire.

That war has been going on for many years. It will never end completely—but good soldiery can win many valuable victories. During its course, the enemy has caused destruction running into the billions of dollars—and many thousands of lives.

The war exists because of individual carelessness, individual ignorance, individual lethargy. Fire prevention is almost entirely an individual matter. It is up to each property-owner, each manager of a business, each farmer. The best building and inspection laws are impotent in the face of public indifference—the finest fire department can do relatively little, if the public refuses to cooperate.

It is not only a duty but a privilege to enlist in the war against fire. And the duties are simple. Learn what causes fire, and how fire may be prevented. Then apply that knowledge—today, tomorrow, every day in the year. Fix that faulty wiring—and have it done by an experienced electrician. Check that old furnace, now that the cold season is upon you. Throw away those old rags and newspapers and magazines that you have stacked in the attic and basement—and that you will never use. Store that gasoline or benzine in approved, safe containers. And remember that the place for matches and cigarettes is the ash tray—not the rug, the bed, or the garage floor.

We can fight fire successfully. During the last few years substantial progress has been made, and the loss is now well under the $500,000,000 a year level established not so long ago. That progress should serve to remind us how much more remains to be done—and how easy it is to achieve definite results once we really go after them.

How does business compare with a year ago? It depends on where you live—but for the majority of people, it is better.

In all but six states of the union September business activity was greater than it was a year before, according to the U. S. News. In three of those states—New York, Virginia and Louisiana—it was worse. In the other three—Nevada, North Carolina and Texas—it was unchanged.

Throughout the country, reports show that improvement is continuing, and at an accelerating rate, in almost every industry.

OUT OF THE EXPERIMENTAL STAGE

The farm cooperatives have passed out of the experimental stage. They have become as essential to modern agriculture as the plow.

They have demonstrated that only through cooperation can supply be adjusted to demand—that only through cooperation can the farmer obtain a fairer share of the final selling price of what he produces—that only through cooperation can scientific farming be extended to millions of farms, making smaller acreage produce better, more profitable crops.

TAXES EXCEED DIVIDENDS

In a letter to stockholders, the president of a representative large American merchandising corporation, points out that it pays a dividend of $1.00 a share while its tax amount to $1.12 a share. The letter says, in part: "Your thoughtful consideration of tax figures will bring you a realization of the burden of your company's tax bill and will perhaps indicate the present tendency toward excessive taxation, which obviously must be borne, directly or indirectly, by Mr. and Mrs. John Citizen."

Hundreds of other businesses, large and small, find themselves in a position such as this. For a while it may be possible to meet increased taxes by lowering the return to stockholders. But sooner or later, the tax burden must be reflected in the cost of whatever the company sells, whether it be a locomotive or a can of beans.

The entire public must always eventually foot the bill caused by reckless, extravagant and wasteful government.

$2,000,000,000—THREE MONTHS' SPENDING

During recent years, the American public has become accustomed to astronomical statistics—especially in the field of government spending. The days when a million dollars was an impressive sum seem to be over, at least temporarily—it takes at least ten figures to elicit much in the way of public interest nowadays.

Even so, here is a fact that should command the earnest and thoughtful attention of us all: Federal government expenditures for a little over three months of the current fiscal year passed the $2,000,000,000 mark—breaking all previous records in the country's peacetime history, according to a New York Times article based on Treasury reports.

Every nickel of that $2,000,000,000 either came out of our pockets—or must come out of them in the future, when the deficit must be realistically faced. Every nickel of it comes out of the salaries of workmen—the slim profits of industry, the meager returns paid investors. Billions that could otherwise be used to provide additional employment or raise wages, to build factories, to expand old industries and initiate new ones, go to the tax collector.

Two billion dollars would create 500,000 four-thousand-dollar homes. It would employ 1,666,666 men for a year at wages of $100 per month. It would build 20,000 one-hundred-thousand-dollar factories which could produce necessities and luxuries, up purchasing power, and provide jobs. If it were simply divided equally, it would give every man, woman and child in this country $16.

Those illustrations give an idea of the almost inconceivable rate at which a single governmental unit is spending the people's money. And remember—that $2,000,000,000 represents but three months' spending. State and local governments are equally prodigal. Is it any wonder that authority after authority says that tax reduction would give the greatest possible spur to recovery?

COLOR PERVERDES WHOLE ENSEMBLE

Color is not content this season to be a splash or a dab—it pervades the entire ensemble from tip to toe and has finally invaded the field of woman's most conservative color necessary—silk stockings.

The traditional beige and gray tones have made way for red and green stockings. Wine red stockings are smart with all of the wine tones. Suede green silk stockings are worn with greens and browns, with green suede or antelope gloves, shoes, and bags to match. Very sheer, two and three thread hose, in green or red make their debut for dresser wear.

Savvy blue hose are high style with a blue town suit collared with raspberry red velvet and worn with a matching hat. With a Venetian green dress accented in brown green silk stockings and brown shoes are new.

Some New Shades Added to Hosiery for Autumn Wear

Hosiery, this fall, is here in a variety of new shades. In keeping with growing "feeling of luxury in the evening mode, smart complements will be provided for the gold, silver, and bronze slippers worn with gowns of Eastern influence. For daytime, a series of browns will be best liked—golden brown, wine brown, brownish tan with a rose cast, natural beige and coppery brown—to go with autumn colors.

Smoother Hair Styles

Smoother hair styles are being seen for early fall. Advance styles would indicate that the elaborate rows of curls, popular for many months, are to be laid aside—until we all change our minds again.

Handbag Made of Wood

A smart handbag is large and flat, designed to look like an enormous concertina, and it is made of wood in a dark brown, natural finish.

TO WRITE GUIDE TO U. S. AS RELIEF JOB

6,500 Writers and Research Workers Employed

Washington.—About 6,500 writers, research workers, architects, geologists, photographers, map makers and clerical workers are to be enlisted from the relief rolls to compile and write the American Guide—a set of American "Baedekers" which will enable Americans "to discover America," Harry L. Hopkins, W. P. A. administrator, announced.

The new guide book will be published in five volumes, corresponding to five natural regions of travel in the United States. Mr. Hopkins said it would furnish a wholly useful and hitherto unperformed service for the citizens of the country. The work will take ten months to complete.

Cover Five Regions.

Of the five volumes, one will comprise the northeastern region, extending from Maine and Massachusetts west to Illinois and Wisconsin. West of Chicago, travelers normally take one of two routes, either through the north middle western states to the Pacific coast or through the southwestern states to Mexico and Arizona. Each of these sections will have its own guide. The Pacific coast states, including Nevada and Utah, will also comprise one region and the southeastern states another. Travelers going from New York to New Orleans or Florida will be able to obtain information of interest to them from one guide book.

Administration of the research and editorial preparation of the guide will be headed up in Washington. Control of the field force of writers and other workers will be vested in twelve regional supervisors, who will also direct the work in each of the states in which the regional offices are located. Every other state will have a supervisor and a staff of writers, taken from the relief rolls, working in every city having a population of over 10,000. Smaller localities and rural sections will be covered by field trips.

Real Travel Guide.

Routes of travel will be indicated not only for motorists but also for persons wishing to see America from its rivers, canals and small streams, and for hikers wishing to follow mountain trails. Points of interest in chief cities will be enumerated. Information will be provided on hunting and fishing seasons. Biographical notes will be compiled about noted citizens who have lived in various localities of one time or another. Unique library and museum items will be listed, attention will be directed to churches and public buildings where distinctive architectural and art work may be studied, experimental theaters and schools will be described briefly, and all manner of historical landmarks, national parks, hotels, mineral springs, zoological wonders, irrigation projects, low-cost housing developments and model factories will be described.

Scanty Address Fails to Dismay Postal Men

Tower, Minn.—A letter written and posted in Finland and addressed only "Mrs. Sami A. Harju, Route 1, Box 41, H. S. A." has been received by Mrs. Harju, near here despite the fact that the city, county or state was not designated.

Post office authorities in New York

knowing of Scandalmouth and Flushing settlements in Minnesota, forwarded the letter to Minneapolis. Authorities there recalled that a large Flushing settlement in the state is in Otter Tail county and addressed it to New York.

The post office there happened to know that the Harjus reside near Tower, and the letter was sent there.

WOMEN'S CLUB FEDERATION
TO HOLD ELABORATE
PROGRAM AT GLENCOE

The Federation of clubs of the tenth congressional district of Illinois will meet with the Women's Library club of Glencoe as hostesses Wednesday at the Union church of Glencoe. It is announced by Mrs. Fred M. Clarke of Wilmette, publicity chairman. The meeting, which is an all-day session beginning at 9 o'clock, will feature an address by Mrs. Richard B. McCauley, president of the Better Films, council of Chicagoland. Another highlight on the extensive program is an informal talk by Fred J. CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Probation After Death" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 27.

The Golden Text was, "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, to which the Lord hath promised to them that love him" (James 1:12).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be" (Ecclesiastes 11:3).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "In the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be." So we read in Ecclesiastes. This text has been transformed into the popular proverb, "As the tree falls, so it must lie." As man falleth asleep, so shall he awake. As death smiteth mortal man, so shall he be after death, until probation and growth shall effect the needed change" (p. 201).

Nest of Bubbles

One of the strangest nests made by fish is that of the Paradise fish, for it is made of bubbles. The male collects a few small pieces of water-weed and binds them together with hosts of bubbles which he blows from his mouth. These fish are beautifully colored, being striped with red, gold, and green, and for this reason are sometimes called rainbow fish.—The Bits Magazine.

Answers to Airplanes

Parachutes were first carried in an airplane. In 1912 Captain Berry made the first descent from an airplane in St. Louis, Mo. He used a medium sized parachute, folded and stuffed into a conical cylinder, tied under the front end of the airplane skid. During the last days of the World war in 1918, German aviators frequently used them, but after the war little was done to complete the use of parachutes until the year 1921. At this time British and American aviators began working upon a parachute which could be carried conveniently by a pilot.

Lights of New York
by L. L. STEVENSON

Just before he started on the expedition that he hopes will take his wife and himself into Amazon country, William LaVare visited the American Museum of Natural History. There, for a few moments, he held in his hand the great Jonkers uncut diamond which, as you may know, weighs 750 carats. Diamonds are no strangers to Mr. LaVare. He has found many and bought more in South America. The largest stone ever handled by him, however, weighed 30 carats before it was cut. So he wanted the thrill of laying the world's greatest uncut stone in his hands. Perhaps there was a touch of superstition about it also, since, along with explorations, he will search for the precious white stones. But there was more than that.

Diamonds have a peculiar effect on those who hunt them, said Mr. LaVare, on board the Van Rensselaer just before it started on its long voyage to Paramaribo, which will be the LaVare headquarters. Those who find precious metals look on them simply as money. But a diamond apparently takes on a personality—or at least such a strong attraction that the finder hates to part with it. As proof, he told of bush negroes who, having sold their diamonds, came back day after day just to touch them again. When the diamonds finally were shipped to Amsterdam, their former owners were heart-broken. Miserably poor bush negroes often refuse all offers for diamonds, weighing 10 carats and up, simply because they cannot part with them. "It gets everybody," said Mr. LaVare—and hence the visit to the museum.

To the people of the bush, Mr. LaVare will tell of having handled the greatest diamond in the world. He will explain its size and weight and how it felt to hold it in his hand. Those who listen will take largely "pork knockers," who will be largely "pork knockers." Pork knockers are former sugar and rice plantation hands thrown out of employment by the depression. They unite in bands of from six to ten and go diamond hunting. Having no financial backing, they are unable to purchase supplies. So they live largely on the wild pigs—peccaries—of the region, which they kill with clubs. Thus, why they were called "pork knockers" becomes apparent.

Lucius Beebe, probably the most urban of various columnists hereabouts, spent three successive week-ends in the country. On the first, a bee stung him. That was painful, but on his next trip he had a worse experience—he was so severely sunburned he had to go into retirement for two days. He made one more try, however, and came back with a severe attack of poison ivy. So now he is determined to get no nearer the country than a roof garden.

Street scene: From the windows of a ground floor tenement, the walls of an infant in distress. Every driver passing the house moves with unusual care and without blowing horns. At the corner, a ragged youngster warning motorists and truckmen, "Dere's a sick kid in dis block."

Gentle and white-haired Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Mahinkey of Forsythe, Mo., a visitor in New York, because in a magazine contest she was adjudged the best rural correspondent in the country, told of how when she first began writing 14 years ago, she recorded the birth of a little girl. As that little girl grew up, her parties were described by Mrs. Mahinkey. Then came her marriage and the birth of her children. Recently, Mrs. Mahinkey completed the record—the obituary of the woman of whom birth she had written. Few, if any, metropolitan reporters have such an experience.

Ohio Will Lose Island

Prison It Used in 1861

Sandusky, Ohio.—One of Ohio's most notable historical landmarks, the Civil War blockhouse on Johnson's Island in Sandusky bay, is facing obliquity.

Severely damaged in a recent wind-storm, the old prison structure is being torn to pieces by persons seeking firewood. The blockhouse housed Confederate prisoners during the war between the states.

O. E. Lutz, historian of the Lake Erie Island region, is leading a movement to have the structure preserved. The state can take no action, as the island is owned by private interests.

Two such blockhouses once were located on the island, but one was destroyed by fire several years ago.

Girl Speeder Gets

Trip Through Morgue

San Francisco.—"A trip through the morgue is worse than a jail sentence."

Thus, in a jittery voice, Violet Randolph, twenty-four, protested against the sentence imposed upon her by Municipal Judge Elmer Hobson for reckless driving.

The Judge ordered her to view bodies in the morgue as a "lesson." She was escorted by a deputy coroner into the autopsy room, and the "jewels" where bodies are kept pending investigations. The girl nearly fainted several times.

"I'd rather spend 100 days in jail than go through this again," the girl said.

HIGH HAT THE WORD
IN FALL MILLINERY

It's a high-hat season.

One of the newest high hats in the fall parade is the domino crown turban, which has a rolled edge and a little square knot that sticks straight up in the air exactly like an enlarged domino.

It's shown in velours and suede, with a small flyaway bow in front, and is a pretty trick with some of the new fur coats.

Another top-knot idea is developed in a bonnet cap of black felt, with a big frum-frum bunch of black satin ribbons rising impulsively from the top-front of the crown. Small scalloped loops of black satin edge the bonnet.

The Tyrolean urge is still with us. In casual belted sports hats of velours or felt, with high, peaked crowns and perky quills.

Wool Dress Can Be Worn
for Almost Any Occasion

Jean Patou has created one of those all-time dresses which can be worn for almost any occasion.

This dress is in brown wool with the back of the blouse and the sleeves of the jacket in brown, green and red plaid. The accompanying jacket of brown wool has wide revers of brown carnelian and turn-back cuffs of the same fur. The costume is completed by the Patron thimble hat in brown felt. The narrow brim turns up in back and, for down in front and a bright red quill is its only trimming.

Calaba oil is an illuminating oil made from calaba nuts, which come from a tree of the order of guttiferae that flourishes in Brazil and the West Indies. The oil consists of glycerides of palmitic, stearic and oleic acids, and contains about 15 per cent of a greenish resin which is poisonous and renders the oil inedible. It is, however, used medicinally.

Delicately Balanced Turbines

So delicately balanced are the 10 giant turbines in the Queenston-Chippewa hydroelectric plant in Canada that, after the sluice gates are shut, their wheels will run on momentum, unless the brakes are applied, for more than 12 hours.—C. C. Foster, Maplewood, New Jersey, in Collier's Weekly.

Meaning of the Name Hafiz

The Persian name Hafiz is really only a title meaning gifted with a good memory. It was bestowed upon the poet as a pupil because he could recite the whole Koran. It has clung to him by name instead of his real name, which was, in full, Mohammad ad-Din, or Mohammed, the sun of religion.

Unhatched Ducks
Unhatched ducklings, called baluts, are said to be a Philippine delicacy. They are eaten about 10 days before their time to hatch if nature had been left to take its time-honored course. Eggs are hatched in sacks in the sun.

125,000 PEOPLE IN THE CHICAGO AREA ARE LIVING BETTER BECAUSE OF GAS HEAT...

The THERMOSTAT

does all the work in Gas Heated homes

No bed-time bother with the furnace. No early rising to tend the fire. Sleep hours longer and find the house warm when you awake. Gas heat removes every furnace worry, and it costs but a few cents a day more than old-fashioned methods.

TIME for bed. In some homes it is the time for scurrying around in the basement, banking fires, setting dampers, poking up, so that fires will last until morning.

But in a gas heated home, time for bed brings none of this work and worry. Just sound sleep, unbroken by fears that fires will go out, that a chilly house awaits in the morning. With gas heat the house is warm when you wake, and there's no shivering trip to the basement at daybreak to tend furnaces.

Sleep hours longer
In thousands of homes men and women are sleeping hours longer in the morning, thanks to gas heat. The minute they wake they realize the joy of having this ideal, automatic heating system. The house is cozy and warm. There's no coal to shovel, no icy trips down basement stairs. No ashes to sift and haul. No messy, dirty jobs to start the day wrong.

Moreover, gas heat is clean. It eliminates hours of heart-breaking, back-wrenching toil. There's no soot, no grime to keep you forever cleaning. With gas
